

Letter from Alexander Graham Bell to Mabel Hubbard Bell, September 12, 1907, with transcript

ALEXANDER GRAHAM BELL TO MABEL (Hubbard) BELL Beinn Bhreagh, C. B.
Thursday, September 12, 1907. Dear Mabel:

Daisy, David and Alexander the fourth are just leaving for the Grand Narrows by the Gaudial (?) as the Blue Hill does not run on Thursdays — and they are afraid to stay over another day for fear of not getting railroad accommodations — which have already been secured for this trip — I take advantage of their going.

I have already sent you to the Parker House a copy of my correspondence with Hon. M. Ross, M. P. about Baddeck water supply — and I now enclose copies of two dictations which will show you how we are moving in the direction of the organization of an Association. Remember these are strictly confidential at the present time.

Not awake yet — can't write — but you know I love you and want you home. Hope you received my telegrams. Have sent you six. One to Portland, two to Jefferson, one to Portsmouth, one to Parker House, and one to some other place you telegraphed from — yes Gloucester. Hardly hear from you. Hope your mother's foot is better. Love to her and ever so much for you my dear. I miss you.

Your loving husband, Alec. Mrs. A. Graham Bell, Parker House, Boston, % Daisy.
